Turkic Languages Summer School: Location

The program is based in vibrant and beautiful Almaty, Kazakhstan, one of the largest cities in Central Asia and surrounded by the magnificent Tien Shan mountains. Almaty is a safe city with diverse residents, and offers a rich cultural life, great food, and amazing access to nature.

KIMEP University was founded in 1991 and offers an English-medium, North American-style education. It has consistently been recognized as one of the top universities in Central Asia.

Note: Please make sure you have international health insurance that covers Kazakhstan.

Courses

KAZ1501 Beginning Kazakh

(3 credits/5 ECTS)

Instructor: Aynur Abish, PhD, visiting prof.
Minzu University (China)

The course emphasizes all four major communicative skills (speaking, listening, reading, and writing). Students will learn to use simple to moderately complex sentences for communicating in different contextual settings, holding basic conversations, writing short descriptive passages, forming basic dialogues, and comprehending short texts.

UYGH1001 Uyghur Language

(3 credits/5 ECTS)

Instructor: Gulnar E. Yulghun, PhD, Harvard University

The course emphasizes all four major communicative skills (speaking, listening, reading, and writing). Students are also introduced to Uyghur culture, history, and religion through readings, screenings, and class discussions. Another aim of the course is to expose students to a variety of topics in Uyghur culture through culture-based language activities so that students not only learn the Uyghur language, but also the culture, history, religion, and sociopolitical backgrounds of its speakers.

Russian Language courses

We also offer Russian language courses

CHAG1001 Chaghatay Language

(3 credits/5 ECTS)

Instructor: Gulnar E. Yulghun, PhD, Harvard University

The course includes a survey of Chaghatay literature as well as a discussion of grammar, the writing system, and lexicographical resources; the class meetings will be devoted to both textbook-based instruction and (particularly in the second half of the course) the reading of samples from Chaghatay texts drawn from printed sources and manuscript copies.

LING4102 Special Topics in Linguistics: Field Methods (3 credits/5 ECTS)

Instructor: Adam McCollum, PhD, visiting Fulbright scholar, the State University of
New Jersey (USA)

This course provides an introduction to linguistic fieldwork. The central component is an intensive practicum with users of languages that students are not familiar with for the purposes of developing skill in participatory research that includes data collection, data management and the analysis and description of the phonological, grammatical and lexical structures of human languages.

Students can choose to register for up to three courses (but no more than two language courses simultaneously).
