LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS

As teaching at Keele is in English, all students must be able to prove they have a sufficient level of English to be able to cope with the course from the beginning. If they are a non native English speaker, students will need to submit an appropriate English Language qualification or attend one of our pre-session English courses. Evidence required is outlined below:

EU - A letter from home university is to be provided stating your English is at least CEFR B2 level.

USA, Canada, Australia - No evidence required

China, Hong Kong, Japan, Malaysia, South Korea & Taiwan - IELTS or TOEFL iBT

Information about our pre-session courses can be found on our website:

www.keele.ac.uk/study/languagecentre/pre-sessional/courseoverview/#entry-requirements

COURSES

The module catalogue is released each May for the upcoming academic year and outlines which modules are available to students and which semester they are being held. Keele outlines its modules as being either level 4, 5 or 6 and this corresponds to 1st, 2nd or 3rd year modules respectively.

We will send a Module Choice Form to students when they have applied, which allows them to pre-register on their chosen course. Some of the modules may clash and alternative courses may need to be chosen when students arrive at Keele. Courses are finalised during the first few days of the semester by meeting the Subject Tutors and Personal Tutor. Further details about this will be given during International Orientation.

UNIVERSITY GRADING SYSTEM

Keele courses are divided into modules. Successful completion of a module will result in a student gaining a pre-defined number of credits at a specific level. Modules are assessed at the end of the module on a percentage scale.

Class I	70 - 100%
Class II i	60 - 69%
Class II ii	50 - 59%
Class III	40 - 49%
Fail*	35 - 39%
Fail	0 - 34%

These are the final degree classifications and all marks above 40 are considered to be satisfactory. The majority of students receive marks in the 50 - 69% range. A mark of below 40% for an individual module is a fail and no credits are awarded for the module.

*Grade may be compensated at the discretion of the subject board

This allows students to enter the UK and study for up to six months. If a student is coming to study in the UK on a study abroad or exchange placement for more than six months, a Student visa will be required. The University will issue a Confirmation of Acceptance of Studies (CAS) which is an electronic record held by the UKVI and will be issued only once the student has fulfilled all the conditions of the Exchange or Study Abroad offer at Keele. These rules can vary depending on nationality and other factors. Visit www.gov.uk/check-uk-visa to check eligibility. We would advise students to arrange their visa in advance.
