

Nagoya Zokei University (Aichi, JAPAN)
 Application guidelines for Student Exchange Program
 - Spring 2024 semester-

■ Features

Nagoya Zokei University (NZU) is a private university located in Nagoya City, central Japan.

■ Study fields

We offer five study fields. Exchange students may choose one of the fields below.

All of the courses are given in Japanese.

Starting from the Spring 2024 semester, we now require incoming students to have basic Japanese communication skills. Applicants are expected to have at least an N3-level command of the language on the Japanese Language Proficiency Test. Note that this is only a guideline and taking the test itself is not mandatory. Applicants' language skills will be assessed in a simple online interview.
